Subject: ACTION: Funding and Approval for Fiscal Year (FY) 2013 On-the-Job Training/Supportive
Services Program

September 6, 2013

From: Warren S. Whitlock
Associate Administrator for Civil Rights

In Reply Refer To: HCR-1

To: Division Administrators

For Fiscal Year 2013 (FY13), the Office of Civil Rights (HCR) is distributing On-the-Job-Training Supportive Services (OJT/SS) funds using the same formula used by the FHWA's Office of the Chief Financial Officer to allocate annual Federal-aid dollars to the State Transportation Agencies (STAs). This year, additional funds have been added to the pool from past years' unobligated OJT/SS funds de-allocated from STAs earlier this year. The total FY13 amount available for distribution is $11,039,186.

FHWA Division Offices must immediately notify their STA of their formula-based allocations listed below, and obligate these funds on or before Friday, September 20, 2013, Program Code M490. It is critical to obligate all the OJT/SS funds by the deadline in order to ensure full access to the funds in FY 2014. Note that some of these funds are from de-allocated funds that will expire at the end of FY13.

Should an STA decide not to participate in the OJT/SS program for FY13, the STA's Chief Executive Officer must submit a written statement on agency letterhead of his or her intention to decline the FY2013 OJT/SS allocation. This statement should be submitted to the Division Administrator by Friday, September 13, 2013.

The FY2013 OJT/SS formula-based funding allocations are as follows:
